Than this drive that I now will make;
For distance it will take the cake.
Twill go at least three hundred yards,
Thew's nothing shorter in the cards.
The ball is teed up good and high;
Upon it I will keep my eye.
The whiles I draw back mice and slow.
The driver, which I'll then let go.
I'll give it just the proper map.
To but the ball an awful rup.
And as it sails off they the air.
The seem I hit it fast and square.

I wonder where the ball will go
(For that's one thing! never know).
I do just as the abl "Pro" said:
"Keep see on ball; don't move the head;
"Keep shoulders down; bring club right thru."
Just what be told me to. I do.
And still I always alice or pull;
My cup of woe is brimming full.
